Taft Counsels Harmony.

President Taft has been consulted about the situation. He conferred Saturday in New Haven with New York men, who have told him that Mr. Barnes is muddying the situation in New York by holding aloof from instructed Taft delegates. It is not known what view the President took of the matter. His general attitude is one of slowness and deliberation in a question at this time. He dislikes to give orders to make a fight on a man, whether that man is against him or not. He prefers harmony.

But it will make no difference what the President advises, so far as his close friends in New York are concerned. They are going to insist that Mr. Barnes go on record, and do so as promptly as he can conveniently do it. When the State convention meets practically every delegate from Greater New York, with a number from up the State who are in sympathy with the movement, will be prepared to put the issue right up to Mr. Barnes and settle it by a fight in the convention.

The Taft leaders cannot see any good reason why Mr. Barnes should act as he is acting. They charge here that he dislikes Mr. Taft because the latter "burned" him on several occasions; he is against Roosevelt, whom he corduity dislikes; he is opposed to La latter "burned" him on several colons; he is against Roosevelt, whom latter "burned" him on several occasions; he is against Roosevett, whom he cordinally disilikes; he is opposed to La Follette and all that the Wisconsin man stands for. He is believed to be trying to force a delegation for Associate Justice Hughes, of the Supreme Court. He disilikes Hughes, too, but his disilike of him is less than it is for either of the other three.

Mants a "Roast" Pintform.

Mr. Barnes is also accused of a boss's desire to force the State convention to adopt a platform and compel Mr. Taft to ratify that platform, which is expected to be a redhot roast of everything that is propressive in the Republican party. If Mr. Taft were to accept this platform he wood lose all chances of election in the Middle West. If he accepted it at the dictation of Mr. Barnes the Albany man would go higher with certain regulars in New York as a real boss. But the Taft leaders do not propose to permit Mr. Barnes to build a platform and then place Mr. Taft or any other man he may want on it.

The best politicians here from New York say the State is for Taft, regardless of Mr. Barnes. They are going to carry it for the President, aided by Barnes or opposed by him, just as Mr. Taft sees fit.

SEEK FUND TO ERECT ADDITION TO HOSPITAL

ISpecial to The Times-Dispatch.1
Danville, Va., January 23.—A week's canvass to raise $15,000 to build an addition to the General Hospital was started here to-day. During the past two years it has become apparent that the present institution is not large enough and for this reason it has been decided to build an addition to the present buildings. Many of the nurses and matrons have their rooms in the hospital itself, thus preventing these rooms from being used as private wards. The proposed addition is to be more a nurses' home than anything else, although any extra available space will be converted into additional wards.

At a meeting held during the latter part of the past year the hospital directors decided to issue an appeal to the Commercial Association and to inaugurate a week's campaign for the solicitation of the $15,000 necessary to carry out the proposed construction.
